Personal Statement

I am self motivated, confident and conscientious with high standards both professionally and in my personal life: always positive and enthusiastic towards my work and responsibilities. I am well mannered, articulate and possess highly developed organisational and interpersonal skills. I am very reliable, totally trustworthy with a very caring nature. I have current experience working with children as a part time nanny. I'm also training as a part time teaching assistant as well as volunteer work, working for a children's Performing Arts theatre school. I am fully CRB checked and can provide references. I am a keen cook: with the ability to make and prepare nutritious home cooked meals with a knowledge of healthy food choices and dietary plans. I hold a full clean driving license and I am a car owner.
